

Dr. Manisha Priyam
Ph.D., London School of Economics and Political Science

Dr. Manisha Priyam is an Associate Professor at the National Institute for Educational Planning and Administration, Ministry of Human Resources Development, New Delhi. She has a doctorate in International Development from the London School of Economics and Political Science.

In her policy advisory role, she has worked for the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India, Government of National Capital Territory of Delhi, the World Bank, and the UNDP as Adviser on projects of tertiary education reform, primary education reform, and urban social policies.

Among her publications are The Contested Politics of Education Reforms in India: Aligning Opportunities with Interests, Oxford University Press, 2015, and “From Clients to Citizens: Learning from Brazil Provides an Opportunity to Delhi” in N. Jayaram edited, Social Dynamics of the Urban, Springer, 2017.

She is a leading commentator on policy and political issues on the print and electronic media in Indian and abroad. She writes for leading national newspapers and weeklies in Hindi and English-the Indian Express, the Hindu, Mint, Outlook, Dainik Jagran, Amar Ujala, and Prabhat Khabar, and Hindustan. Her academic writings have been published in the Economic and Political Weekly, Seminar, Studies in Indian Politics, and in the University News.