No. AIU/RES/QASPIR III/ April 2020
April 06, 2020

Dear Vice Chancellors/Directors,

This is in continuation to our previous letters and announcements of the Online Workshops on “How to deliver/transact Curriculum through online” organized by QASPIR, UK in collaboration with Association of Indian Universities which were successfully conducted during March 31 and April 01-03, 2020 respectively.

It gives us immense pleasure to share that the online Workshops received overwhelming response and a large number of participants registered for the workshop and we have received good feedback from the participants. This event has proved to be effective for building capacity among the faculty members of our universities and higher learning institutions on maximizing the use of technology and transacting the curriculum through online, especially during a time when organizing and conducting physical classroom process is not possible due to sudden outbreak and widespread of COVID-19 which has taken the shape of a global pandemic.

However, all the desiring participants could not be accommodated due to limited number of seats and we received requests for additional online workshops. Hence, we contacted QASPIR who has agreed to hold one more workshop from April 15-17, 2020 wherein based upon the feedback received from the participants of the earlier workshops, they shall enrich the content and delivery with some more added features.

Your enthusiasm and cooperation in terms of inspiring your faculty members to participate in the Workshop is duly acknowledged and appreciated. The endeavor has yielded tangible results with the participation of large number of faculty members from our higher education institutions. In view of the above, it is requested that the information regarding the additional Workshop from April 15-17, 2020 may please be circulated among the faculty members so that the interested and remaining faculty members can take part in the workshop and get benefit of acquiring relevant knowledge and skills of transacting the curriculum online. The Brochure containing the detailed information about the additional Workshop is attached for your ready reference. We shall appreciate your proactive initiative and response in making the workshop a grand success.

With warm regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Pankaj Mittal)

All Vice Chancellors/Directors of Member Universities/Institutes.
